

UKCISA (UK Council for International Student Affairs)

UKCISA provides advice and information on immigration, funding and welfare issues to current and potential international students

www.ukcisa.org.uk

Education UK (British Council)

Education UK is part of the British Council. They provide advice and information on cultural relations and educational opportunities to current and potential international students.

www.educationuk.org

Student Calculator

The international student calculator will help you work out how to manage your money and build a budget for living and studying in the UK

<http://international.studentcalculator.org/>

GOV.UK

On the GOV.UK website, you can check whether you need a UK visa to come to the UK to study.

<https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>

Home Office: UK Visas and Immigrations (previously known as UK Border Agency)

The Home Office- UK Visas and Immigrations Department is the Government Agency responsible for handling visa applications to come to the UK, applications to extend a stay in the UK on a temporary and permanent basis, applications for asylum, appeals, correspondence and Sponsor management.

www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk

Homestay

A source of Homestay accommodation in the UK

www.londonhomestay.org

Studying in England

An online guide for international students who want to start studying in England

www.studying-in-england.org